A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

A Blessing in the Cloud

Hebrews 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

Hello Friends

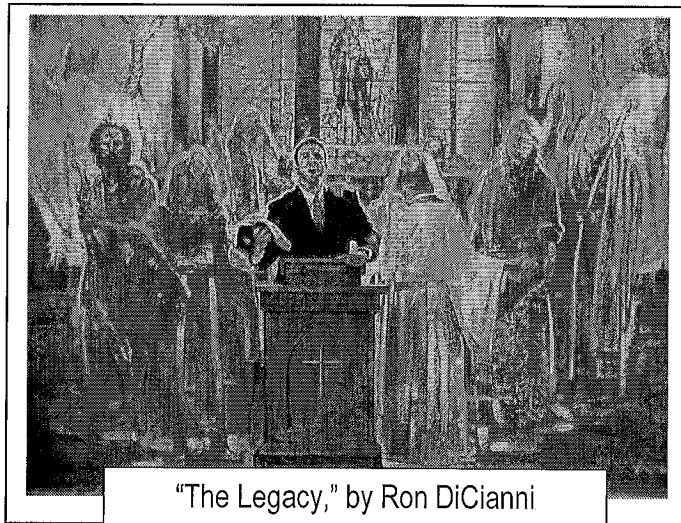

For those of you who know me best, you may be a little surprised to know that I am slow to adopt new technology. I am intrigued by it, and will research it, but I would not call myself an "early adopter." In fact, when I returned to college in 1998, one could have heard me complaining about how I was being "forced" to get a computer, and how unfair I thought that was. In the congregations I have served since, I have had a reputation as being a "techy," but that is really only true in church circles, as the rest of the world is years ahead of me. One of the reasons I facilitate updates within the facilities I've been blessed to serve is because I think it is a difficult witness to be decades behind the rest of the culture. I'm certain there are conflicting opinions about that, but in the end I simply want us able to use every tool we can to make disciples of Jesus, including our building and all that is in it.

In my personal and professional life, I have for a couple years dabbled in backing up some information online, I have more recently started producing more documents, spreadsheets, and sermon presentations on the internet, saving them "in the cloud." I remember a time when most of the conversations involving a cloud would be about what shape one appeared to have in the sky (sometimes my family still does that on a car trip!). To go from that to doing some of my creative work "in the cloud" is quite a change!

Scripture has references to Cloud terminology, but with a completely different context. A pillar of Cloud guided God's people in the wilderness, and a Cloud represented God's presence at the Tent of Meeting, as well as in the temple, at Jesus' baptism, and on the mount when Jesus was transfigured before the disciples.

The New Testament doesn't cover this as a topic much other than the Gospels and in Revelation, but here in Hebrews, there is a challenge. A challenge to not give up. A challenge to put aside sin. A challenge rooted in remembering those who didn't have their prayers answered the way they wanted; in remembering those who died without being spared by God during times of persecution; in remembering those who were faithful while not having the same blessings as the first readers of the letter to the Hebrews. Sometimes it is good for us to be reminded we are still surrounded by that cloud of witnesses. We have always been working in the "cloud."

The picture on this page is an image called "The Legacy," by Ron DiCianni. My parents gave me a copy as a seminary graduation gift. It is one of the last gifts my mom picked out for me, so it is of course precious. The stained glass image represented in the background matches the one in the church I was serving at that time. The picture itself communicates this "Cloud" we work in, a Cloud of, and even with, the witness of others joined in God's wondrous work.

We will set aside time on November 4 to remember the saints who have traveled on ahead of us, and it is my hope that their witness can inspire us to be more than we think we can be, and can remind us that if they could finish the race well, then we can too.

While working in the Cloud, I am,

In His Service and Yours,

Robbie

Board Meeting Highlights

Devotion

Dick Martens led with devotion from the Book of Job. It reminds us to trust in the Lord's love, and thank him for all you see, and not forget to thank him for all you don't see.

There have been $815 donated thus far. Remember this charity when you are giving. It is a responsible mission to give to. Les appreciates all the support. There were 20 Hoffman walkers and 7 walkers from the MVCTC, Milton-Union FFA Chapter.

Meeting Attendees

Trustees Report

There was a work day on October 13th. The threshold on the basement door was replaced as well as some painting done. The carpet is planned to be replaced starting November 6th. The boiler in the basement has had 2 pumps go out. The pumps are having to be rebuilt because they don't make this particular pump any longer.

Guiding Principles

In regards to the church survey. There may be needs out there that we would like to be able to respond to. If you do have something you would like addressed, please don't hesitate to let any of our board members know. For the ministry fair, boards were made for the various ministries around the church. Stop by the welcome center periodically to see what's on display!

Pastors Report

September average attendance was 155.

Becky is preparing an outreach card for families to invite other families to Family Fun Day, being held November 10th. Please let her know if you would like to add anyone to that list.

Joseph finished the last round of Confirmations last Sunday. Becky, Pastor Robbie and Joseph are working on Beggars Night Outreach.

Pam has trained 5 new greeters. They have been given nametags, job descriptions, became familiar with the Welcome Center and made sure they had access to the RightNow Media training videos. Small groups are in gear for fall. 3 Women's Study Groups, one Men's Study and a Women's Emmaus Share Group continue to meet. These are in addition to the five adult Sunday classes/groups that meet. If you are interested in joining in any one of the mentioned groups, contact Pam and she will be happy to help you.

Ways You Can Be a Blessing This Month

Not only will you be contributing to this worthwhile ministry, you will be passing on the legacy of giving and generosity to your family. "Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them fade from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them." Dt. 4:9
- Before Thanksgiving Dinner, put together a basket of index cards or blank pieces of paper and markers. As each family member arrives for dinner, have them write down the things they are thankful for this year. "give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." 1 Th. 5:18
- Invite a widow and/or orphan to share Thanksgiving or other meal with you and your family. "Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world." James 1:27

student ministry

With the holidays quickly approaching, there is a lot happening in November! Sunday, November 4 from 2:00-7:00, Ignite will be doing a work day around the community (raking leaves, etc.) instead of regular Ignite. We will end at the Garrett's house for snack and devotions. If it rains, we will reschedule, and just hold regular Ignite on the 4th.

Saturday, November 10 is Family Fun Day at the church. We will have a carry-in lunch and fun activities from 11:30-2:00, so bring your families!

Sunday, November 11 during regular Ignite time we will be doing Operation Christmas Child. We will team up, go shopping at Dollar General, and pack/wrap our shoeboxes to send to children around the world. A great way to give back and get into the holiday spirit. Hope to see you there!

Don't forget, when there are no special events, regular Ignite Sunday nights from 6:30-8:30 for students grades 6-12!

A Love Letter From Jesus

How are you? I just had to send you this letter to tell you how much I love you and care about you. I saw you yesterday as you were walking with your friends. I waited all day, hoping you would walk and talk with Me also. As evening drew near, I gave you a sunset to close your day, and a cool breeze to rest you. Then I waited, but you never came. O yes, it hurt Me, but I still love you because I am your friend.

I saw you, asleep last night, and I longed to touch your brow, so I spilled moonlight upon your pillow and your face. Again, I waited, wanting to rush down so we could talk, I wanted to hear your voice.

You awakened late this morning and rushed off for the day. My tears were in the rain. Today you looked so sad, so alone. It makes My heart ache because I understand. Many of My friends let Me down and hurt Me time and again, but I love you. I try to tell you in the quiet green grass. I whisper it in the leaves and trees, and breathe it in the color of the flowers. I shout it to you in the mountain streams, and give the birds love songs to sing. I clothe you with warm sunshine and perfume the air. My love for you is deeper than the oceans and bigger than the biggest want or need you could ever have.

We will spend eternity together in heaven. I know how hard it is on earth. I really know, because I was there, and I want to help you. My Father wants to help you too ... He's that way, you know ... Just call Me, ask Me, talk to Me. It is your decision ... I have chosen you, and because of this I will wait ... Because I love you.

Your Friend,
JESUS

THEDA'S THOUGHTS...

SUBMITTED BY THEDA KLEPINGER

ONCE UPON A TIME there was a little girl who lived with her loving family. One day they were visiting relatives who lived in a nearby city. During the evening meal, when all were gathered around the table, the little girl noticed a dish of sweet potatoes out of her reach. She politely asked, with eager anticipation, for someone to pass the dish to her. When the little girl received the dish, to her dismay, it did not contain sweet potatoes, but buttered carrots! Using good manners, she managed to eat a few of the nutritious veggies. This event reminds me of the old adage: "Things are not always what they seem to be". As we sift through life's experiences, we begin to see things more clearly until we see the real thing. Philippians 1:9-11.....that you may be able to discern what is best.....
